

Contents

Important Note to Readers	4
Acknowledgments	5
Introduction	6
Beginnings	6
The Track today	6
Track marking	7
Walk safely!	7
First-Aid	9
Fundamentals for first-time walkers!	12
Walk sensitively – Ethics in the bush	12
When to walk?	13
Dressing for the weather	13
More than one way to walk the capes!	14
Registration Stations	14
Camping	15
Water	15
Fire Danger	15
The scenery	16
Friends of the Cape to Cape Track Inc.	17
The maps	18
Short walk suggestions	19
Map 1: Dunsborough to Meelup Beach	21
Map 2: Meelup Beach to Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse	24
Map 2: Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse to Kabbijgup	30
Map 3: Kabbijgup to Yallingup Brook	33
Map 4: Yallingup Brook to Wyadup Road	37
Map 5/6: Wyadup to Quininup Brook	41
Map 6/7: Quininup Brook to Wilyabrup Brook	45
Map 7/8: Wilyabrup Brook to Veryiuca Brook	49
Map 8: Veryiuca Brook to Left-Handers	53
Map 9: Left-Handers to Gnoocardup	57
Map 10: Gnoocardup to Prevelly water-tanks/communications tower	61
Map 11: Prevelly Ridge Communications Tower to Redgate Beach	65
Map 12: Redgate to Contos campground	69
Map 13: Contos campground to Davies/Hooley Road Junction	74
Map 14: Hooley Road to Boranup Beach Road	78
Map 15/16: Boranup Beach Road to Hamelin Jetty	81
Map 16: Hamelin Bay to Cosy Corner Road	83
Map 17: Cosy Corner Road to Turner Brook (Deepdene Beach)	87
Map 18: Deepdene Beach to Augusta Cliffs North Lookout	91
Map 19: Augusta Cliffs North Lookout to Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse	95
Stop! and Smell – the Peppermints! Perfumes in the Bush	98
Guessing the Gum-nuts	99
Hooded Plovers	100
Waves and Rip Currents – Swimming Safely	101
Weeds – Wildflowers we could do without!	101
Reptiles	103
Climate charts	104
A Guide to Short Walk Suggestions	105
Distance Chart – Cape to Cape Track	106
Distance Chart – Meelup Trail	107
Camping Facilities	107
Track Access	108
Other Southwest Books	108
Index	108
Key to the Maps	113
Important Telephone Numbers	113
Using the Maps with a Satellite Navigation Receiver	113